Bookie, 68, Gets Probation; Must Shun Race Track

Abe Kadan, 68, a confessed track-side bookie, Thursday was placed on probation for two years by U.S. District Court Judge Abraham L. Marovitz.

If Kadan goes to a race track during that period, he will be sent to prison for contempt of court, Judge Marovitz told him.

Kadan was one of 15 bookies arrested Aug. 24 in a raid at Sportsman's Park. The judge granted probation after being assured that Kadan had a steady job.

2 MAY TURN STATE'S EVIDENCE

Two admitted bookmakers, appearing for sentencing on gambling charges, announced in federal District court yesterday they may turn state's evidence against the reputed kingpin of their bookie ring.

Herbert Marcantonio, 49, of 929 S. Bell av., and William Sessa, 38, of 3152 N. Melvina av., told Judge Bernard M. Decker they would like time to consider whether to testify against Donald Angelini, 37, of 3035 N. Lockwood av. Angelini, said to be the head of a 15-man bookmaking ring which was broken up by internal revenue service agents last year at Sportsmen's Park race track, is to go on trial Feb. 17. He is charged with failure to purchase a federal gambling stamp or register with the internal revenue service as a gambler, the same charges to which Marcantonio and Sessa have pleaded guilty.

Assistant United States Atty. David P. Schippers said in court the two men have "relative information concerning Mr. Angelini's activities in the field of syndicate gambling." Judge Decker delayed sentencing until March 9, when Angelini's trial could be over.

DONALD ANGELINI, aka

(CG File 92-1525)

DONALD ANGELINI, a partner in the Angel-Kaplan Sports News Service, Chicago, Illinois, well-known sports handicapping and sports schedule sales outlet, found guilty today by Federal Judge ABRAHAM LINCOLN MAROVITZ, NDI, Chicago, for violation of Wagering Tax Stamp law. Judge MAROVITZ delayed sentencing pending pre-sentence investigation. Judge MAROVITZ cited testimony of FBI agent in this case, which was not disputed by defense attorney and was vital to conviction in this matter.

ANGELINI directed on-track bookmaking operations at Sportsman's Park, Cicero, Illinois, where he and 14 other bookmakers were arrested by IRS agents on 8/24/63. The conviction of ANGELINI brings the number of convictions brought about by these arrests to 15 out of 15.

The investigation of on-track bookmaking at Sportsman's Park, which culminated in the arrest and convictions of the 15 on-track bookmakers, was initiated by the Chicago FBI.

2 BOOKIES MUM ON BOSS; BOTH FINED, JAILED

Failed to Purchase Gambling Stamp

Two admitted bookmakers were fined and sentenced to jail in federal District court yesterday after they refused to testify against the accused leader of their bookie ring.

Judge Bernard M. Decker imposed fines of $2,000 each on Herbert Marcantonio, 49, of 929 S. Bell av., and William Sessa, 38, of 3152 N. Melvina av. Each was sentenced to 90 days in jail.

The two had pleaded guilty to failing to purchase $50 special wagering tax stamps and failing to register as bookmakers with the internal revenue service.

Had Appeared Previously

They appeared before Decker Jan. 22 and indicated they might testify against the alleged leader of the ring, which had operated at Sportsman's Park race track until broken up by federal agents last year.

The alleged leader, Donald Angelini, 37, of 3035 N. Lockwood av., was found guilty of similar charges by Judge Abraham L. Marovitz, despite failure of the two to testify, and is to be sentenced April 2.

Deny Knowledge of Boss

John Cogan, attorney for Marcantonio and Sessa, said they refused to testify against Angelini because they knew nothing of his activities. The prosecutor, Thomas Regan, insisted they could have given testimony which would have shown the extent of Angelini's operations.

Thirteen of the 15 bookies rounded up at the track by internal revenue agents have been fined or jailed. One has not been tried.

Subject's activities concerning on-track bookmaking purportedly for SAM and CHARLES ENGLISH has been covered in Chicago File "ON-TRACK BOOKMAKING" Chicago Division IGA, Chicago file 162-392. ANGELINI was found guilty by Federal Judge ABRAHAM LINCOLN MAROVITZ, Chicago, Illinois, on 2/17/64, for violation of the Wagering Tax Stamp Law in a case involving ANGELINI and 14 other bookmakers arrested by IRS Agents on 8/24/63, as a result of investigation initiated by the Chicago FBI of on-track bookmaking at Sportsman Park.

ANGELINI is the subject of a case entitled "Angel-Kaplan Sports News Service, ITWI;ITWP", Chicago file number 165-1. ANGELINI is a partner under the alias of ANGEL in this Sports News Service of the Angel-Kaplan case. It is anticipated that the Angel-Kaplan case will go before a Federal Grand Jury in April or May, 1964, at Chicago.

ANGELINI is a close associate and partner of DOMINIC CORTINA and is [redacted] being investigated under a case captioned "DOMINIC CORTINA, ITWI;ITAR-GAMBLING", Chicago file number 165-462. The activities of CORTINA and DONALD ANGELINI are currently being reported in this investigation.

Inasmuch as ANGELINI has been convicted and is awaiting sentence in the On-Track Bookmaking, Chicago, [redacted] case; and is facing impending prosecution in the Angel-Kaplan Sports News Service case and his activities are currently being reported in the DOMINIC CORTINA investigation, no further investigation of ANGELINI is anticipated in the AR classification, and it is recommended that this case be closed.

Sentenced To 30 Days As Bookie

One of 15 men arrested at Sportsman's Park track last August on charges of operating a bookie ring received a 30-day prison sentence Friday in U.S. District Court.

District Judge Michael L. Igoe sentenced Joseph Accardi, 40, of 702 N. Monticello, after acknowledging a probation report that found Accardi not fit for probation.

ACCARDI, who pleaded guilty March 16 to the charge of failing to purchase a federal gambling stamp and failing to register as a bookie, was the 14th bookie to be sentenced.

The alleged ringleader, Donald Angelini, 37, of 3035 Rockwood, is scheduled to be sentenced May 21 by U.S. District Judge Abraham L. Marovitz.

TRACK BOOKIE GETS $2,500 FINE, 60 DAYS IN JAIL

Donald Angelini, 38, of 3035 N. Lockwood av., convicted leader of an illegal 15-man bookmaking ring at Sportsman's Park race track, was fined $2,500 and sentenced to 60 days in jail yesterday in federal District court.

Angelini was found guilty last March of failing to buy a $50 federal gambling stamp or register as a bookmaker with the internal revenue service. He was the last of 15 men arrested in August to be sentenced. He is free on $1,000 appeal bond.

"There is no doubt that Angelini was the focal point and the nerve center of this gambling operation," said Judge Abraham L. Marovitz. Fines of the 15 totaled $11,000, their jail terms 22½ months, and probation 164 months.

He stated that the on-track bookmakers have eliminated the $2.00 bettor in their contacts at the track and have a select clientel of bettors known to them. The actual betting that takes place is carried on without exchangg of money. The bookmaker accepts the wager from the bettor and makes a notation on his racing program. Winnings and losses throughout the racing program are settled after the races. On some occasions the bookmaker will settle up after each individual race by meeting the bettor in the clubhouse area where money is either accepted or paid out surreptiously.

In connection with [redacted] it is to be noted that [redacted] on several occasions has been observed in the presence of FIORE BUCCIERI, and on one occasion was observed at BUCCIERI's farm, the Santa Fe Saddle and Gun Club, in Southern Cook County which is owned by FIORE BUCCIERI. DONALD ANGELINI

On January 20, 1966, informant stated that the hoodlums engaged at gambling were greatly perturbed that DONALD ANGELINI did not receive a reduction of his 60 days sentence in county jail. ANGELINI had been sentenced on November 29, 1965, to 60 days in jail resulting from his arrest at Sportsman's Park, Cicero, Illinois, for on-the-track bookmaking. ANGELINI later appealed this sentence immediately prior to Christmas, 1965.
